16th/17th April 2016                      FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER
(HOLY YEAR OF MERCY 2015-2016)

Reflections for the Holy Year of Mercy (7)

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As part of our continuing catechesis during this Holy Year devoted to God's mercy, we now turn to the message of consolation found in the book of the prophet Jeremiah. The jarring experience of the Exile had shaken the faith of the Chosen People, yet the prophet proclaims that God, far from abandoning his people, reaffirms his faithful love and his promise of salvation. Jeremiah's words of consolation and hope have a particular resonance today in the light of so many tragic situations of exile throughout our world. They also tell us of God's gracious offer of forgiveness, restoration and the possibility of a new beginning. The prophet's imagery of the desolate land turning into a garden, and the joyful throngs ascending Mount Zion, speak of God's power to bring life out of death and blessing out of evil. Jeremiah's prophecy finds supreme fulfilment in the coming of Jesus, whose paschal mystery proclaims the triumph of God's merciful love and his promise of reconciliation, renewal and life eternal.

THE EASTER ANGELUS

During the Season of Easter, the Angelus is replaced by the “Regina Caeli”. It will be sung at the beginning of the 6.00pm Mass on Saturdays and the 12noon Mass on Sundays. The text of the prayer can be found in the Parish Mass Books on page 2 (opposite the Table of Contents and below the text of the Angelus).

EASTER COMMUNION: all Catholics are bound to receive Holy Communion worthily between Ash Wednesday and Trinity Sunday (one’s “Easter duties”). This duty requires us, if necessary, to seek the forgiveness of our sins in the Sacrament of penance. The Church teaches us that we must purify ourselves from sin and receive Christ worthily in Holy Communion. It is only by His grace that we are made worthy to enter in the presence of, and communion with, the All-Holy God.

 will be on Thursday 21st April at 8pm, at St John Vianney, Clayhall.

SICK AT HOME OR IN HOSPITAL: if anyone is seriously ill at home or is in hospital, it is most important that a priest be informed so that the sick person may receive the spiritual help of the sacraments. Relatives or friends should inform their parish priest and/or the Catholic chaplain of the hospital (at King George Hospital, 8590 9026; at Queen’s Hospital, 01708 447761; at Whipps Cross Hospital, 8520 5877).

*****

GOING INTO HOSPITAL? May I draw your attention to the Sick Parishioner Care forms at the back of church. Please take one if you are going to hospital and wish the Catholic chaplain to look after you!
Fr Selvini

*****

MASS INTENTIONS/OFFERINGS: special envelopes are available at the back of church. If you would like a Mass offered on a particular anniversary, please let the Parish Priest know well in advance – the sooner the better! Thank you for your

ONCE AGAIN, on behalf of my father and my family, I would like to expression of sympathy at the time of my beloved mother’s death. *A Mass
